Stephen Ministers bring distinctively Christian care to those in need. They use both words and deeds to express Christ's care for others—listening and comforting, calling on the training they have received and employing the tools of faith. If this job description fits your personal goals for ministry, consider becoming a Stephen Minister. A training class is starting soon. For more information contact Carolyn Eiden, Stephen Leader at 458-4343 ext.104 or 980-1382.

The Food Pantry will again be distributing school supplies to the school aged children of families visiting the Pantry. At the time of this message, we have over 500 children on the registration list. If you can help provide some school supplies in any way, we would much appreciate the help. Please reference the Food Pantry report in the August issue of the Forward. Thank you!

A free-will offering will be collected to defray expenses. The concert will be held on Sunday, September 11 at 4:00 p.m. (right after the Packers opening game) at First Congregational Church, 310 Bluff Avenue. See you there!

Helping Hands Needed. Are you looking for a rewarding way to put your faith into action? Aurora at Home seeks hospice volunteers. Duties include: Visiting hospice patients in their own homes in and around the area. Reading, holding a hand, chatting, playing games or just watching TV with the patient, anything a good neighbor might do!! Volunteers do not transport or do personal cares. Volunteers are needed approximately one time a week depending on patient need, for a couple hours each visit. The commitment is not time consuming; services are not always needed every week. Training is provided on an individual basis. No nursing experience needed. We hope you will join us on this rewarding path. Please contact Amy Reineking at 920-412-6682 or email amy.reineking@aurora.org for more information or to be in the volunteer process.
